

GEMS/Water Programme

Global Water Quality Monitoring and Assessment

Collecting global water quality data since 1978.

Network of over 4,000 stations in more than 80 countries.

Global Programmes Coordination Unit, UNEP, Nairobi

GEMS/Water Data Centre, International Centre for Water Resources and Global Change hosted by Federal Institute of Hydrology, Koblenz, Germany

GEMS/Water Capacity Development Centre, University College Cork, Ireland

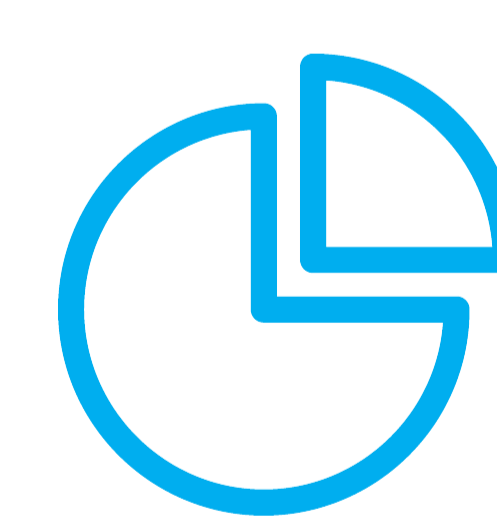

With the support of Regional Hubs:

Regional Hub for Latin America and the Caribbean, National Water Agency (ANA), Brazil

Supporting the Sustainable Development Goal for Water (SDG 6) with data management, indicator calculation and capacity development.

Updating the GEMStat database and improving availability, accessibility and visualisation of data.

Assessing capacity development needs in Africa and other world regions and developing new training courses for workshops and on-line delivery.

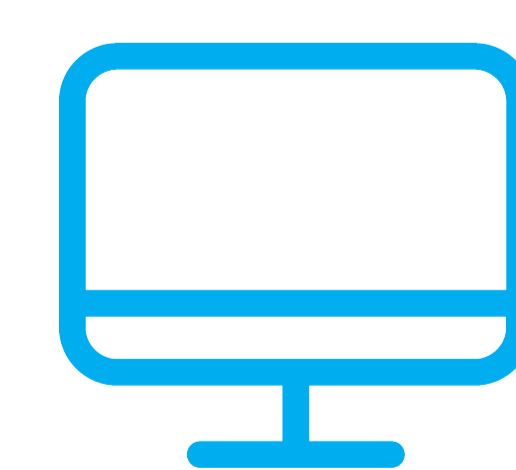

Dynamic data visualisation

Water quality reports

Guidebooks and handbooks

On-line training courses

