Transportation from the Airport

A. Airport Limousine:

Please contact the Limousine Counter, in the Baggage Claim Hall and the Arrival Hall.

B. Metered Taxi:

A more economical, but still fast and reliable is the Public Taxi system. After leaving customs, please exit and follow the signs Public Taxi - take the escalator and go one level down to the Public Taxi counter which is outside the building.

Fares are according to the meter (ask the driver to use the meter) approximately Baht 350-400 each way (US$10-12), with an additional 50 Baht airport surcharge, and expressway fees (up to 100 Baht) if the driver will use the highway. The ride from the airport will take about 45-60 minutes.

C. Suvarnabhumi Airport Rail Link:

The station located on the basement level of the passenger terminal. Airport Rail Link offers a high-speed train service to downtown Bangkok. Two different services are operated.

The non-stop Express Line brings you directly to Makkasan station in 15 minutes for 150 baht. From Makkasan station please change to City Line for Phayathai Station. The Siam City Hotel is 3 minutes across the road from Phayathai Station.

The City Line stops at all stations, and after Makkasan continues to Ratchaprarop and Phaya Thai. The ride to Phaya Thai takes about 30-45 minutes costs 15-45 baht, after which a graduated fare depending on distance travelled, will be introduced.
