

Knowledge-Sharing Meeting on Stakeholder Implementation of the SAICM Chemicals in Products Programme

10 February 2017 – Brasilia, Brazil

Draft Agenda

Venue: Hotel Brasil 21 - Setor Hoteleiro Sul, Quadra 6, Asa Sul
Centro de Eventos E Convencoes, Brasilia, Brazil

Co-Moderators:

- Mr. Tim Kasten, Deputy Director, Economy Division, UN Environment
- Ms. Leticia Carvalho, Director, Department of Environmental Quality in Industry, Ministry of the Environment, Brazil (tbc)

Time	Agenda Item	Speaker / Document
Welcome and Introduction
09:00 – 09:45	Welcome and opening remarks	Ms. Leticia Carvalho (tbc) — Director, Department of Environmental Quality in Industry, Ministry of the Environment, Brazil Mr. Achim Halpaap, Head, Chemicals and Waste Branch, UN Environment Ms. Anna Fransson, Senior Advisor, Swedish Chemicals Agency (KEMI) and Chair, Chemicals in Products Programme Steering Group Participant introductions
09:45 – 10:30	Presentation “Activities and progress under the CiP Programme since the fourth session of the International Conference on Chemicals Management (ICCM4)” Discussion	Kevin Munn, Programme Officer, Chemicals and Waste Branch, UN Environment Relevant Meeting Document: Activities and progress under the CiP Programme since the fourth session of the International Conference on Chemicals Management (ICCM4)
Session 1: Sharing knowledge on stakeholder actions to advance information sharing on chemicals in products
Objective: To share among meeting participants the progress made and lessons gained from chemicals in products information exchange initiatives and actions.
10:30 – 11:15	Panel presentations and discussion Case examples and lessons learned from chemical in product information sharing in Brazil	Moderator: Ms. Leticia Carvalho (tbc)
11:15 – 12:00	Round table of short case presentations Chemical in product information sharing by international participants: Governments, private sector, Nongovernmental organizations and Intergovernmental organizations	Participants will describe their chemicals in products information initiatives and management actions (max. 5 min per participant)
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch

Session 2: Strengthening stakeholder engagement in knowledge-sharing under the CiP Programme
Objective: Identify action to scale up stakeholder participation and knowledge-sharing in the SAICM CiP Programme
13:00 – 14:00	Introductory presentation: Enhancing knowledge sharing by stakeholders under the CiP Programme: Proposed format	Kevin Munn , Programme Officer, UN Environment Relevant meeting document: Enhancing knowledge sharing by stakeholders under the CiP Programme: Proposed format
14:00 – 15:00	Break-out groups Groups will have the tasks to: 1. Identify possible advantages and benefits for stakeholder to participate in the CiP Programme ¹ . 2. Identify specific outreach activities that will inform, engage and motivate stakeholders to participate in the CiP Programme and to share their initiatives and management actions.	Moderated group discussions
15:00 – 15:15	Break
15:15 – 16:00	Break out groups continue
16:00 – 16:30	Groups report back to plenary Discussion
16:30	Meeting close

¹ Examples of possible advantages include: recognition of corporate social responsibility, possibilities to advance partnerships and demonstration of advancing policy objectives. Refer also to the Chemicals in Products Programme, Section B, Box 1: Potential advantages of the Chemicals in Products Programme