

REPUBLIC OF ESTONIA
MINISTRY OF THE ENVIRONMENT

UNEA-3 ministerial breakfast “Environment and Health”

Wednesday, 6 December, 2017

8:00 – 9:30, Gala Tent, UN Gigiri Compound, Nairobi, Kenya

The aim of the high-level ministerial breakfast is to facilitate discussion between Ministers and Heads of Delegations on addressing the pollution-health-environment agenda and on main co-operative actions and solutions towards reducing the adverse impacts of pollution on health and the environment.

Agenda

- 8:00 – 8:10 Mr Siim Kiisler, Minister of Environment, Republic of Estonia
Welcome and opening
- 8:10 – 8:20 Mr Erik Solheim, Executive Director, UN Environment
UN Environment, in collaboration with WHO and other organizations plans to mobilize action for pollution-health-environment agenda
- 8:20 – 8:30 Mr Richard Fuller, President, Pure Earth
Conclusions of the Lancet Commission report on Pollution and Health and most urgent actions to take based on the report
- 8:30 – 8:40 Dr Maria Neira, Director, Department of Public Health, Environmental and Social Determinants, World Health Organization
Actions undertaken by the World Health Organization in addressing the pollution-health-environment agenda
- 8:40 – 9:20 Questions and discussion
- 9:20 – 9:30 Mr Karmenu Vella, Commissioner, Environment, Maritime Affairs and Fisheries, European Commission
Closing remarks

Note: Ministers and Heads of Delegations are kindly invited along with one more colleague to participate