

UN Environment Programme Partnerships

Monday, 22 October 2018

Time: 17:30 -19:00

Venue: VIP Lounge

Bitings will be served

Description of event:

This event aims to highlight the importance partnerships have to successfully deliver the Programme of Work of UN Environment. To do so, this interactive discussion will showcase examples of UN Environment Partnerships and will explain the different processes that are in place for any entity to become a partner.

The event will focus on the follow processes:

- Partnerships – the important role they have to deliver on the Programme of Work
- Private sector partnerships:
 - How UN Environment works with the private sector
 - Due Diligence processes
- Not-for-Profit Partnerships:
 - How UN Environment works with the Not-for-Profit organizations
 - Due Diligence processes
- Update on the review of the Partnerships Policy, Procedures and guidelines documentation.

Speakers:

- Jorge Laguna-Celis, Director, Governance Affairs Office – UN Environment Programme
- Isabel Martinez, Senior Legal Officer, Legal Unit, Corporate Services Division – UN Environment Programme
- Emanuele Corino, Head, Administration Unit, Corporate Services Division – UN Environment Programme
- Stephanie van der Poel, Private Sector Unit, Governance Affairs Office – UN Environment Programme