

Priorities for continued global cooperative action on CiP

- Development of global principles on CiP-information that could enable
 - design and production of safer products
 - safe recycling
- Industry involvement from different parts of the product chain and waste sector is crucial and welcomed
- Continued focus on toys, electronics, textiles and building products is preferred